

THE BOURBON BAR

With an importance placed on quality over quantity, we carry an ever-changing collection of more than 300 bottles of American Whiskey at The Bourbon Bar.

We curate our selection to show the geographical breadth of the spirit, as well as the depth in expression across all styles and eras.

From selected single barrels to bottles from all regions in America, our whiskey collection is always in motion.

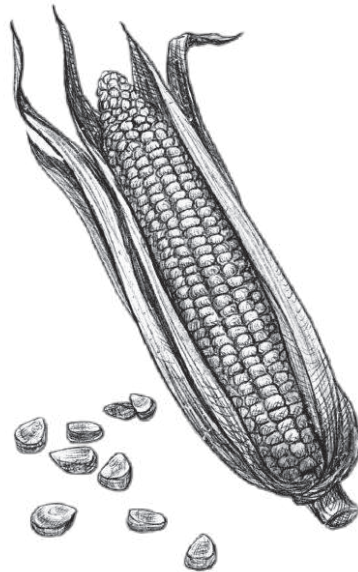

THE CORN OF OUR BUSINESS

The Big Daddy of American Grains

1st Introduced in the mid - 1700's in the soon to be United States

If you're thinking corn on the cob, that's sweet corn, which is not the same corn used to make bourbon

The corn joins other grains in a magical mix called the mash bill

Bourbon uses "dent corn," so called because each kernel has a little dent in it.

It can last upwards of 20 years when stored in airtight containers

Buffalo Trace Distillery

Buffalo Trace Distillery has been making Bourbon whiskey the same way for more than 200 years.

No distillery has earned more recognition than Buffalo Trace. The title of “World’s Most Award-Winning Distillery” has been earned through the uncompromising dedication of craftsmen for well over 200 years.

In 2013, Buffalo Trace Distillery added its most cherished distinction yet: National Historic Landmark. After taking more than 200 years to achieve, the Distillery joined this elite group of the most influential places in North America. This award, more important than any others, is for the Distillery, its people, its builders, its visionaries, its preservers and its protectors.

“Courage is a vitamin best swallowed with whiskey”.

This very rare and collectable Bourbon honours the O.F.C. Distillery, a National Historic Landmark known today as Buffalo Trace Distillery. Each hand-cut crystal bottle is vintage dated according to the specific year in which the bourbon was distilled. Enjoy this whiskey of a bygone era, sourced from barrels of yesteryear.

"You can handle just about anything that comes at you with a believable grin, common sense and whiskey".

Pre-Prohibition

The term “speakeasy” did not originate during Prohibition. Hudson, an American journalist recalled that while in Pittsburgh in 1889, a new city liquor licensing law reduced the number of taverns there to only 96. That encouraged a rise in illegal bars all over town. Hudson asked Tim O’Leary, a local Democratic Party politician, to show him one. O’Leary explained that an elderly Irish widow who sold illegal beer and whiskey once warned her patrons, in her brogue, to “spake asy, now, the police are at the dure.”
