WHISTLEPIG TASTING

Respect tradition | Embrace progress

There's a lot to learn from the past. But WhistlePig believes the best era for Whiskey is in front of us. They are constantly pushing themselves to try new things and to unlock the potential of Rye Whiskey. They protect what makes Rye Whiskey great, toss out the rest, and then innovate to make it better.

The Black Prince was voted best whiskey in the world at the San Francisco World Spirits Competition, beating out some of the world's oldest Scotches. It is also the first rye whiskey ever to be finished in Armagnac casks

TASTING HISTORY

Pre - Prohibition

This is your chance to experience a piece of history. Picture a whiskey that was distilled in 1916, just as the world was gathering into an arena for WWI, Kentucky's Old Hospitality Whiskey was laid into a barrel, where it stayed until 1933. In that time, WWI and Prohibition had both come and gone. 1933 was the same year Hitler began to rise to power again and the Noble Experiment had finally ended; this was the year this particular bottle of Kentucky's Old Hospitality was bottled. I'm sure some heavy discussions occurred over that whiskey, and maybe some hard decisions were made too.

LET'S EXPERIMENT

Warehouse X

Bourbon distilleries are experimenting with recipes and barrel treatments more than two decades ago. Currently there are thousands of barrels of whiskey aging in their warehouses. Each of the barrels has unique characteristics and experimental changes in the mash bill, types of wood, barrel toasts and more. Some work, some don't.

Periodically, an experimental whiskey is bottled and sold on a limited basis. The taste profile for each experiment is uniquely its own depending on the mash bill, wood type, barrel treatment, warehouse environment and age. Try our Bourbon Bar favorites or let's say, experiment it!

PAPPY GATE

The Heist

Pappy Van Winkle is the unicorn of bourbons. “People say it’s real, but we’ve only really seen it in pictures.

For all we know, it could have been a pasted-on label to a bottle of iced tea or it could be totally real and what Bigfoot drinks with his college buddies every time they get together in the old cave”.

The point is, a bottle of Pappy Van Winkle Family Reserve is extremely rare and the vast majority of people will go their entire lives without ever sampling one”. This is your unique opportunity...
